The above-named student wishes to be considered for the Takatuf Scholars Programme. Should he/she be selected, he/she will be required to participate in a number of activities and assignments that will require travel within the Sultanate of Oman, possibly international travel and co-educational learning. He / She will also be required to regularly access the internet to communicate with the programme and submit his / her work.

If selected as a Takatuf Scholar, your student will be amongst a group of young Omanis who will participate in a residential summer programme. Students will study and work together during the day. They will be securely housed in dormitories with separate supervision and facilities for young men and young women. The dates for the summer programme will be announced on our website in due time. All expenses directly related to this programme will be covered by the Takatuf Scholars Programme.

If selected as an International Scholar, your student will receive full support for overseas study for up to six years, leading to the completion of an undergraduate degree. During this time, he/she will attend a leading preparatory school followed by an internationally recognised university. Study breaks will involve a practical internship or another Takatuf Scholars Programme assignment as well as vacation time.

More information on the Takatuf Scholars Programme may be found at www.takatufscholars.om

To start the application process, your student must submit this signed and witnessed Parent's / Guardian's Consent form to the Takatuf Scholars Directorate through the online application platform. Without a completed Parent's / Guardian's Consent form the application will not be registered.
